

RUSK COUNTY TEXAS, COUNTY COURT AT LAW STANDING ORDER

RUSK COUNTY COURT AT LAW STANDING ORDER REGARDING CHILDREN, PROPERTY AND CONDUCT OF THE PARTIES

No party to this lawsuit has requested this Order. Rather, this Order is a standing Order of the Rusk County Court at Law that applies in every divorce suit and every suit affecting the parent-child relationship filed in Rusk County that requests a temporary restraining order or temporary injunction. This Order shall remain in effect for the entirety of the lawsuit, unless modified or deleted by further Order of this Court. The County Court at Law of Rusk County has adopted this Order because the parties and their children should be protected and their property preserved while the lawsuit is pending before the court. Therefore, it is ORDERED:

1. NO DISRUPTIONS OF CHILDREN. Both parties are ORDERED to refrain from doing the following acts concerning any children who are subjects of this case:
 - 1.1 Removing the children from the State of Texas, acting directly or in concert with others, without the written agreement of both parties or an order of this Court;
 - 1.2 Disrupting or withdrawing the children from the school or day-care facility where the children are presently enrolled, without the written agreement of both parents or an order of this court;
 - 1.3 Hiding or secreting the children from the other parent or changing the children's current place of abode, without the written agreement of both parents or an order of this Court;
 - 1.4 Disturbing the peace of the children;
 - 1.5 Making disparaging remarks about each other or the other person's family members, to include but not to be limited to the child's grandparents, aunts, uncles, or stepparents;
 - 1.6 Discussing with the children, or with any other person in the presence of the children, any litigation related to the children or the other party; and
